GOVERNMENT OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Health and Disability Services Complaints Office

Matter No. 202508015

Health and Disability Services (Complaints) Act 1995

PROHIBITION ORDER

(Section 52H)

It is hereby ordered that Edwina TAYLOR of CAVERSHAM, a health care worker, is subject to the following condition on the provision of any health service as from the date of this order.

Edwina TAYLOR must demonstrate, within three (3) months of the completion of her Psychology and Counselling degree, evidence of her membership, or application for membership, with the Australian Counselling Association (ACA) or the Psychotherapy and Counselling Federation of Australia (PACFA).

I, the Director, reasonably believe that Edwina TAYLOR has failed to comply with the Code of conduct for certain health care workers and am satisfied that it is necessary to make this order to avoid a serious risk to the health, safety or welfare of the public.

Pursuant to section 52P of the Health and Disability Services (Complaints) Act 1995, you may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision to make this order.

Correne Bartlett
Director
Health and Disability Services Complaints Office
4 November 2026

Note: The terms 'health care worker' and 'health service' have the same meaning as in the Health and Disability Services (Complaints) Act 1995 section 3.

The Code of conduct for certain health care workers is set out in Schedule 3 to the Health and Disability Services (Complaints) Regulations 2010.

Pursuant to section 52G of the Health and Disability Services (Complaints) Act 1995, a person who fails to comply with an interim prohibition order commits an offence.

Penalty: a fine of $30,000.
